IMPORTANT TO KNOW!

There is nothing CHOM takes more seriously than the health & safety of our guests, volunteers and staff.

Please remember that the majority of children who visit CHOM are under 12 years of age and are not yet able to be protected by COVID vaccinations.

ALL guests ages two (2) years and older must wear a museum approved face mask/covering to enter CHOM. Masks/face coverings must be worn from the time you enter the museum until the time you exit. Strict adherence is required; no exceptions will be made. Guests or members not properly wearing an approved face mask or covering from entry to exit may be asked to leave. No refunds will be made.

Member or guests age two (2) years and older who are not able to properly wear a mask for any reason should wait to visit the Museum until masks are no longer required for entry by CHOM.

- Weapons of any type are not allowed in the Museum.
- Backpacks, purses, diaper bags or other bags larger than 10" x 3" x 10" are not allowed in the museum unless they are CLEAR.
- Waterproof diaper coverings must be worn over cloth diapers and other training brands such as 'Thirsties', 'Bum Genius', 'Easy Ups', etc.
- Strollers are not allowed in exhibits, however, a small stroller park area with limited spaced is located just outside of the exhibits.
- If you or your child are too sick for work or school, you should not visit CHOM.
