KNOW BEFORE YOUR VISIT

- Weapons of any type are not allowed in the Children's Hands-On Museum.
- Large backpacks, purses, diaper bags or bags larger than 14" x 8" are not allowed in the museum unless they are CLEAR.
- Food, snacks, drinks & sippy cups are not allowed in the Museum. A limited number of small outdoor tables are available.
- If you wish to leave CHOM and return later in the day, before leaving the building, ask for a readmission pass. It is valid for same day use only.
- Waterproof diaper coverings must be worn over cloth diapers and other training brands such as 'Thirsties', 'Bum Genius', 'Easy Ups', and others.
- Strollers are not allowed in exhibits; however, a small stroller park area with limited spaced is located just outside of the exhibits.
- Remember, if you or your child are too sick for work or school, you should not visit CHOM.

MASK POLICY

All guests ages two (2) years and older must wear a museum approved face mask to enter CHOM. Masks must be worn from the time you enter the museum until the time you exit. Strict adherence is required; no exceptions will be made. Guests or members not properly wearing an approved face mask throughout their visit may be asked to leave. No refunds will be made.

Member or guests two (2) years + who are not able to properly wear a mask for any reason should wait to visit until masks are no longer required for entry to CHOM.

Please remember that many children who visit CHOM are not yet able to be protected by COVID vaccinations.

CHOM MASK POLICY

ALL guests ages two (2) years and older must wear a museum approved face mask/covering when visiting CHOM. Masks/face coverings must be worn from the time you enter CHOM until the time you exit.

Strict adherence is required; with no exceptions.

Guests/members not properly wearing approved face mask/covering from entry to exit may be asked to leave. No refunds will be made.

Member or guests age two (2) years and older who are not able to properly wear a mask for any reason should wait to visit the Museum until masks are no longer required by CHOM.

Please remember that many children who visit CHOM are not yet able to be protected by COVID vaccinations. We continually review safety guidelines and will notify members of any change to our mask policy via the email you provide. We will notify the public of any changes on our website and via social media.

THINGS YOU SHOULD KNOW
